

Composer
Samuel Hazo
to speak, conduct concert

The University's third Distinguished Lecturer of the 2009-2010 academic year will be composer/conductor Samuel Hazo, the first composer in history to win both composition contests sponsored by the National Band Association.

On Monday, November 30 at 10 a.m. in the Campus Center, he will discuss how music helps us all to become better students and citizens of the world during his talk, "THE NEW FACE OF MUSIC ADVOCACY."

And that same evening, November 30 at 7 p.m., he will serve as special guest conductor for the UMPI/Community Band's annual WINTER CONCERT in Wieden Auditorium. The band will perform an "all-Hazo" program.

Both the 10 a.m. Lecture and the UMPI/Community Band Concert at 7 p.m. are free and open to the public.
