Letter D December 12 - 1842

Sir

Enclosed is the note of J. B. Beavers which you left with me the first of the present year for collection. I have not had an opportunity of seeing Mr. Beaver till the present month. He refused to pay said demand or give security for the payment of the same. He alleges as reason for so doing that he had not collected the note specified in the enclosed also that it could not be collected of the said Charles Byllinger from his inability to pay. He said also that the said Mayne had not been good for any amount however small since he (Beaver) came in possession of the note specified as foregoing.

I am Sir yours

Very Respectfully

Thos. J. Richards
