Port Fairfield
Letter 'D' October 17-1843

Dear Sir,

We, the undersigned, citizens of this place, are desirous of obtaining a permit for cutting pine timber the coming winter on township letter F. in the first range of townships West from the east line of the State. If we cannot obtain the above named township we solicit the privilege of ~~making~~ ^{making} timber on letter K. in the ^{second} ~~second~~ range of townships. If we can obtain either of these townships we are desirous of knowing it at the earliest possible moment as also on what terms.

We are Sir

Very Respectfully

To
Levi Brady Esq
