of that & if it is convenient at number after to see that amount from your former year of and it the most direct of payment of the same very much by second ring it as soon as may be. Some way have the year 1855 & additions - I give information if the is a your place. I think it about your former have brought it that time get so has the minor as shown shown more & have seen if all was $50.00. The one receipt for Mr.
Edmund Grant & wife (up) & then 60, about amount about as before in a great degree and with the the full amount of the same

Dear Sir

I have been very glad to communicate a few lines to you to let you know about matters and things in general I am well and my family as my wife I hope these lines will find you & yours in the enjoyment of the same & taking

I am not more than the inside of a birch have small pay but there is plenty of work at present I do not know how long it will last I have not taken translations since I left the Penstock it has all been kept running I have not heard from that little note I let it tell you I had put in much dependence upon it that it is a great disappointment as I had got into debt on the strength
