

Dec 27, 1858

TO THE HONORABLE THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Horace Greeley
Dec 27th 1858

Mr. President
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst. in relation to the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and that they will report thereon at an early day.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
John C. Calhoun

New York Dec 27th
A. S. Richards Esq & Co
Will you please send us at once, the names of all, or as many as possible of the Republicans, Americans, and liberal Democrats, at your post office
address, and oblige
Yrs Respy
Horace Greeley

Is Cal's Club he joined there?
Yours
H. G.

Dec 27, 1858

TO EARNEST REPUBLICANS.

All who are profoundly familiar with Political contests are aware that the most vehement and expensive efforts are made on the very eve of our Elections, when feeling is so heated and opinions are so fixed that the most strenuous exertions can avail but little. One day's work a year earlier would have been worth ten at this time; but not until the battle was set and nearly every one had engaged in it, was either effort or organization attempted.

The Publishers of the NEW-YORK TRIBUNE appeal respectfully but urgently to their fellow Republicans throughout the Union, asking them to let The Tribune be seen and read in those neighborhoods where it has hitherto been known only through the libels of its unscrupulous adversaries. Let the people, but especially let all who are opposed to that Sham Democracy which now misrules our country, and who labor and hope for its prostration in 1860, decide for themselves whether the regular perusal of our columns would not contribute to their edification and enjoyment. Those who mean to have a general overhauling and clearing out at Washington result from the next Presidential Election, will find these advantages in promoting the present circulation of the Tribune:

1. Though a large and compactly filled sheet, the Weekly Tribune is afforded at so low a price, (21 copies a year for $20,) that no one can feel its cost. It is worth half of it in a family for waste paper after dozens have read it.

2. Some of the ablest American writers contribute regularly to its columns, so that the ability and vigor of its political articles are not exceeded by those of any other Journal.

3. Its Reviews, Extracts from New Publications, Literature, Correspondence, Market Reports, and General Intelligence, commend it to the eager perusal of thousands who at first reject and oppose its political doctrines.

4. Its ardent support of the Protection of Home Industry endears it to Mechanics, Artisans and Manufacturers throughout the land, including many who demur to the warmth of its Anti-Slavery convictions.

5. Those who take THE TRIBUNE are always able to give a reason for the political faith that is in them, and rarely have to be sent after on Election Day: they are quite apt to be out among their friends and acquaintances, urging them to come out and vote the Republican Ticket.

6. A day's work now in commending THE TRIBUNE to those not already acquainted with it, will be worth a week's harder work on the eve of the great Presidential struggle.

Friends, who receive this circular, we will thank you to send us the names of any persons willing to take THE TRIBUNE, (either Daily, Semi-Weekly or Weekly,) at our cash prices; but, if you cannot do this, please send us the names and post-office addresses of such persons, in your Country, as you think would be willing to receive specimen copies, and judge for themselves whether the paper will suit them. We will gladly send specimens, free of charge, to all such. Please send as full lists of names as possible to

HORACE GREELEY & CO.,
No. 154 Nassau Street.

New-York, November 20th, 1858.

TERMS:

DAILY TRIBUNE, $6 per annum. $3 for six months.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

One Copy, one year, $3 00. Two Copies, one year, $5 00. Five Copies, one year, $11 25. Ten Copies, to one address, $20 00. An extra copy sent to a club of twenty.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

One Copy, one year, $2 00. Three Copies, one year, $5 00. Five Copies, one year, $8 00. Ten Copies, one year, $12 00. Twenty Copies, to one address, at the rate of $1 per annum, $20 00. Twenty Copies, to address of each subscriber, and any larger number at the rate of $1 20 each, $24 00. An extra copy to a club of twenty.