

May 4, 1861

Col. D. Page

May 4th 1861

W
Bangor May 4. 1861

Dear Sir

Your kind favor of the 21st ult is just as I shall be happy to comply with your request so far as is in my power, I have your promise before me & you will be glad to expense the boat I do not want it myself, there is ^{at} $500 to be expended on the Rowing Machine by Lyndon Westcott, & the Agent may be able both expansions & since some favor it in to expense it's however I will do the best I can for you will see you on my return home am obliged to you for the manifestation of your good feelings & offer of aid with regard to my interests all of which I study thoroughly think on other stems about right

Very Truly
A. S. Richards Esq
D. Page

May 4, 1861