

July 2, 1862

Still in bed with the same

with a feverish & low

temperature

July 3, 1862

Still in bed with the same temperature. The fever is now intermittent. The pulse is slow and irregular. The stomach is still very tender

and

the bowels are still very loose.

July 4, 1862

Still in bed

with the same

From
July 2nd 1862

July 2, 1862

Grand Isle Plt. July 2. 1862

A. S. Richard Esq.

Dear Sir,

As I did sustain your party since several years, I presume that I can be supported on the same way. And being nominate in the Convention at Presque Isle for Register of Deed for this District (3rd Dist.) I wish to have your recommendation in that respect.

Dear Sir please to do me that favor, and be sure that I will do as much for you an another time.

Your affectionate friend

J. Minn. Esq.

J. Minn.