

March 16, 1863

E. D. Mott

March 16/63

Mar 18th

A. S. P. Richards

Gen. Barron

Myrtle

Stonington, Virginia, Feb. 17th 1863

Bro Richards

I thought I would write you a few lines as the children were visiting to give I am sorry that you had to suffer so much but hope you will get about soon and be well we are all opposite well at present I did not think of writing until I came on after I said in last paper

The very best news of

think Johnston will fall soon and Richmond

too we shall be and come up and see you soon keep up good courage times will be better before long hundred years more by the 45

He is coming to the

News in the E. Atlantic

March 16, 1863