I should not know them now Mary & Carry are young ladies and probably would not know me. I would like to be at your place and see you all but it is doubtful if I ever have the pleasure. Do you live at the old place in the house I finished for you yet and are the Edward Haskell living where he was when I was there if so give my love to them. Please write me soon and tell me all the news in your vicinity. Tell me all about Mary & Carry and the rest of the crew to be little ones.

I don't think of any more that is of interest now. Give my respects to your wife and Aquin, hoping to hear from you soon. I remain as ever your truly

Friend Richard;

Dear Sir

It has been along time since I heard from you and I thought I would write a few lines to you to let you know that I am yet in the land of the living I am well and have a nice little woman and she is well have two nice little boys and they are both well and I hope this will find you and yours in the enjoyment of the same great blessing Health I am at work at my trade as usual the rest of the time just at this time I am stopping in the store of Mr. Marks near my place as a substitute for a Clerk.

I suppose your family are grown out of my knowledge. I presume
