My Dear Mr. Colver

I found such specimens gone when I arrived home. They know a lot off a hand! some think they could out their hands for. But I don't think they got all.
As for all slipping up the shore probably all away or some better of.
will be of justice they can't do at things. I shall start for outside with Mr. Bond ' and soon as they are sleeping I think I got some started in trade. and it'll make. I can't say to up my accounts the first
