Collector's Office,

Mr. Richards
Nov 9 1866

Dear Sir, Your statement of the 4th Dec. I had had changed my course taken in the case of the boxes, & I may be able to do it some time I do, Mr. D's letter, was here at the a very different account of the train.
I am at least took a different view from what your letter says. From your statement the gentleman could do no more than what he did. I see no intention to commit a fraud upon the Revenue with the exception of the ramp in the way you all of which he might have paid. I am sure Mr. D has this day, if he has made no date, to go to England. (Who is the honest man Lyons) I have the whole property applied at a great value and pay the duties, what he do please you to come
