London July 9th/71.
As Phoebe told you in her letter, that was going to get me to write some to I suppose I shall have to, but I feel that it is a delicate subject and which to write, so that I feel some what reluctant about writing - As regards the circumstances I know she is in a hard place - David is his own man and has gone on to the Island to learn the Stone cutting trade - Amos is a fishing this summer - but has not made much and he does all he can to help his mother and Phoebe has to go out wash

My Dear Sister
How I are you, and where are you this winter, why have you not been down, I would like to go out to see you, but we have no way to get there I wish you and Alice would drive down and see ^{us} some fine day soon as you can. Lizzie is getting up a class in music, and thought perhaps Alice would like to take a quarter she says if Alice could come to Carrie's twice a week she will teach for ing, and clearing, house I must every day when she is able to get means to support herself and children - I know we all feel that we have all we can do to take care of our own families; but I try to help her all I can One thing she forgot to say to you that is if you write to her please direct it to my name so that Joel shall not get it from the office for he keeps such a row all the time that she can hardly live - so to save all trouble from that side direct to Emma B. Jordan your son Emma

five dollars and if it is not convenient to pay the money she will take store pay, please let me know soon as you can Lizzie will go up to see Barrie perhaps she will take lessons to and see if she is willing for Alice to take lessons there, or more at this time write soon from your sister Carrie

Bennie and Lizzie sends lots of love to you both
