Dear Mother

your love "fringe" and "Ally" much love to all the family what orders just struck to look so much close for that time it used to be nothing but a pleasure for me to write letters it is " " now but do not find the time and George is almost as bad.

Presume you are about to prepare for Thanksgiving & Christmas "I second the motion" why cant you come down and spend Christmas with us just think what a fine time we would have you shall have my big chair before the fire and smoke just as much as you like talk business & with your son do not think you would know him with his whiskers Also tell Mother she shall have her tea just as strong as she likes, the Turkey I cannot promise whether it will be good bad or indifferent as this will be my first experience will hope for the best, there the clock has

Dear Father and Mother

I have just got through writing to Mary, and thought before retiring would just drop @ line home. I got @ letter from Ned @ day or two ago, but he did not say how you were getting along at home. Have you got the Falls work all done, so that you can take it easy the rest of the Winter? and you ought to have @ good Boy this winter to look after the choir if you havent one all ready. you and Mother better make up your minds to come down and spend Christmas with us, I know it is some ways
